

INDUSTRY BULLETIN

2013-11 UPDATE

November 4, 2013

Delegation Agreement Updated

TO: Industry Clients

Effective Date: Nov. 4, 2013

BACKGROUND:

An updated delegation agreement between the Agricultural Land Commission (ALC) and the BC Oil and Gas Commission (OGC) was signed on June 13, 2013. The agreement covers oil and gas activities and related ancillary activities within the Peace River Regional District and Northern Rockies Regional Municipality.

For details on the updates to the agreement, please see the original Industry Bulletin 2013-11, released on Aug. 6, 2013. An Industry Information Session was held in Fort St. John on Oct. 24, 2013 to describe the changes. The new application forms and the manual titled Application Requirements for Activities Planned in the ALR are posted to the OGC website.

REQUIREMENT:

- Effective Nov. 4, 2013, oil and gas non-farm use activities in the Agricultural Land Reserve (ALR) will be administered according to the June 13, 2013 ALC-OGC Delegation Agreement posted to the OGC website.
- Applications received as of Nov. 4, 2013 must meet the requirements described in the manual.
- Applications already received as of this date will continue to be processed and decided according to the April 2010 Agreement, unless they are revised to include submission requirements specified in the new manual.

For further information on this industry bulletin, please contact:

Roger St. Jean
Deputy Commissioner
BC Oil and Gas Commission
Roger.St.Jean@bcogc.ca
250-794-5270